

2025 24th National Advisor Conference
Niagara Falls, ON

September 15, 16, 2025

Continuing Education Credits Available for the Main Platform Presentations
Please view the Main stage CE Credits as they get updated here - Click Here

Please note:

If you reside in BC, SK, MB & ON, most of the advisors have 1 license for both Life & A&S. This means that a Life CE credit is an A&S CE credit.

If you reside in AB, you have 2 license certificates. One for Life and the other for A&S. This means that each license is a stand-alone license and has a separate CE credit requirement. Currently AB advisors require 15 CE credits for each license.

CE CREDITS FOR THE MAIN PLATFORM PRESENTATIONS

Your attendance for ALL the Main Platform presentations will earn you the following CE credits:

Up to 30 CE Credits are available for the financial services profession. You will get CE credits for your attendance, AND you will then have 1 Year to do ADDITIONAL ONLINE CE at no additional cost to you by using our APPROVED Online CE Credit Catalog.

You will have 1 YEAR to complete these online PDU CE credits.

For Advisors from the Atlantic Provinces - You do not require CE credits to maintain your insurance licenses, but YOU DO require CE credits for any financial designations that you hold.

Attending all the main platform presentations on Sept. 15, 16, 2025 will give you a total of 15 CE credits. You will then have 1 YEAR to complete another 15 Online CE credits for a total of 30 CE credits.

Any CE credits earned from this conference could be used towards those designations. Please check the various designations for more information.

FP Canada - FP Canada - Any CE credits earned from Pro-Seminars are considered "Verifiable" CE credits and can be used for a specific amount of the following CE categories of CE credits - Financial Planning, Professional Responsibility and General CE. The General CE category includes activities related to financial planning, financial advice or services, or the financial services industry, as well as Giving Back activities. In addition, CE, which previously qualified in the categories of Practice Management and Product Knowledge may qualify in the category of General CE.

FP Canada leaves it up to the CFP designee to determine what category these CE credits will fall into.

Please view - FP Canada Approved Courses but as per the definition of FP Canada CE, you can use many of our other available courses.

Advocis - Any CE credits earned from the NATIONAL ADVISORS CONFERENCE are considered "Approved" CE credits for Advocis. Send your certificate to them so that these CE credits are included for your Advocis CE requirements. Please keep in mind that you require some of your CE credits accredited by The Institute's Accreditation Service.

Please view current - Institute Accredited CE Courses, but as per the definition of IAFE (Advocis) CE, you can use many of our other available courses.
